

Farewell to Lore and Colin

Revd Lore Chumbley, Priest-in-charge Mar 2016 – Feb 2024

On Sunday 11 February, the Christ Church community came together in numbers to say a heartfelt farewell to Lore and Colin at Lore's last service as Priest-in-charge.

At the end of the service, Nick Wells, chair of the Trustees of Christ Church, thanked Lore on behalf of the Trustees and the congregation for her eight years in post. Lore was presented with farewell gifts and keepsakes from the Christ Church family and BEMSCA, the Bath Ethnic Minority Senior Citizens Association, followed in traditional Christ Church style by cake and fizz.

In a thank-you card, Lore said how touched she and Colin were by all the good wishes they received. We all wish them both the very best for the future.

Jane and Jonathan, our churchwardens, presented Lore with flowers and mementoes including a bespoke book of photos contributed by all the Christ Church community.

Our Junior Church also made a presentation including a handmade card for Lore.

Lore and Colin cut the splendid cake.

Curate's Corner

On Sunday 25 February we heard that Kara, our Curate, has accepted a position in Exmouth and will be leaving Christ Church at the end of June.

Revd Kara Maylor writes:

Love how Jonathan introduced the announcement on Sunday... "When Kara arrived with us, some of us thought she was certifiable – now she has been certified by the Bishop as having completed her curacy and deemed ready to take on a full role as a Vicar." I am so thankful to have been able to serve my curacy in Christ Church. It has been an incredible three years. I have learnt so much of course from Lore but also from all of you. I know now what a warm, welcoming, inclusive church community should look like.

My role in Exmouth is three days plus Sunday, so we will keep our home in Bath, and I will be back for a couple of days a week. Once the house is made habitable, I look forward to welcoming you to come and explore the beautiful Jurassic Coast with me.

From now until June, I will be contributing a longer article for each issue of the Link. If there are any subjects you would like to see addressed, do drop me suggestions on my email, kara.maylor@btinternet.com.

Bath Half Marathon

Watch out when travelling to church on Sunday 17 March – this year's Bath Half Marathon takes place on that day. Roads along the route (shown in red on the map) and access to city car parks are closed from 9am to 4pm (and Royal Victoria Park from 6am to 6:30pm) and parking on those roads – including disabled parking – is suspended from 6am to 4pm. Once again this year the start and finish are on Royal Avenue (in front of the Royal Crescent) and additional parking restrictions apply on a number of roads including Lansdown Road (shown in green). Traffic is likely to be heavier than usual on the diversion routes (shown in purple), which include Julian Road, so you might wish to allow extra time to get to and from Christ Church. Temporary crossings (marked TC on the map) are provided for pedestrians to cross the race route at Green Park and Brougham Hayes.

Services at Christ Church

One of the impacts of being without a Priest-in-charge is that there will be no 8am Sunday morning service at Christ Church during the vacancy. For details of all the services taking place this month, particularly all those over Holy Week and Easter, see the calendar for March on pages 6-7.

Ordinand's Corner

Jane Hoe writes:

Goodness, Lent has come quick, hasn't it! I must say, though, I have been looking forward to it this year! The reason for my eager anticipation has been Brenda and Malcolm's offer to run another Zoom course based on David Cole's "Celtic" series, which we used back in Advent.

I think back in November, some of us had been a little unsure about how diligent we would be about getting up for our 7:30am meeting for 40 days (yes, Celtic Advent is 40 days!), but actually, the fellowship we all felt made it such a joy, we all stayed the course!

The books are excellent – we are learning so much about the Celtic tradition and its teachings – which also proves great stimulus for discussion. What I love most about our discussions is that they are such an "honest space" where we can each say as much or little as we want to. We all bring different experiences and points of view, and this is a joyous thing!

My faith is very much rooted in God being present "in the space between us" and this has never been truer to my experience than in the warmth, joy and shared humanity of this group.

As I'm a (very old!) student doing "distance learning", I spend most of my days alone in my study (you can see from the photo – also drying room/ dumping ground!). So, beginning my day with this fellowship is a wonderfully enriching thing. If you would like to join us (you are most welcome to just "dip in and out" as you are able) then do get in touch with Bren or Malcolm and they will email you the Zoom link.

Sharing the Easter story

From the Diocese of Bath and Wells:

Preparations are well underway for some creative Easter celebrations across Bath and Wells during Holy Week – in our churches, in our schools, as well as in our homes and outdoor spaces.

Suzi Darwin, Children and Youth Worker at St Swithin's, Bath, is one of the organisers of an event designed to share the good news by recreating the wonder of the Easter story in Victoria Park, below the Royal Crescent.

Between 2pm and 4pm on Good Friday, Suzi and other volunteers from six Bath churches will be holding the Easter Adventure in the Park. At stations dotted around the park they will be telling stories and engaging children in a range of ways, from waving palms to sharing squash and biscuits at a Last Supper.

“Last year’s event was really lovely,” she explains, “with people from different churches getting involved and acting out the Easter story at churches around the city. Around 100 people joined in with the event last year, some who regularly attend church and some who don’t, including some families who attend our church toddler group.

“This year’s event is going to be very interactive. The children can get fully involved and at the end we hope to be able to give them an Easter egg and a Bible. By holding it in Victoria Park we hope that even more people can join us – and can meet and come to know Jesus.”

Looking for something creative to do at home to engage with the Easter story? Why not download our Easter Bible Chat Mat at bathandwells.org.uk/chat-mats.

Lent theme 2024: “Watch and Pray”

Before we reach Easter on the last day of March, we are still journeying through Lent. The Church of England’s Lent theme for 2024 is Watch and Pray: Wisdom and hope for Lent and life. On the night he was betrayed, Jesus knelt in darkness in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Though he pleaded with his disciples “Stay here with me... Watch and pray;” they all fell asleep, leaving him alone in his hour of deepest suffering. This Lent we are encouraged to wait expectantly for God to meet us and sustain us through the storms and trials we all face. Watch and Pray invites us to seek God in both familiar and unfamiliar places this Lent: in darkness and in quiet; in movement and migration; in the healing and transforming work of the Spirit; in the weeping of Holy Week and in the joy of Easter morning.

There are resources available for churches, schools and individuals – details are at <https://bit.ly/watch-and-pray-2024>. You can sign up at www.churchofengland.org/node/41651 to get free daily Lent reflection e-mails (except Sundays) delivered straight to your inbox every day up to Easter Day.

Bishop's Message for March

New life for all the world

From the Rt Revd Michael Beasley, Bishop of Bath and Wells

Sowing seeds, chitting potatoes, choosing varieties. Easter acts as starter's orders for the gardening year. Beds are cultivated, lawns are mown, plans for all the growth and new life that spring and summer will bring are made and then turned into action.

There's a much greater connection between gardening and Easter than it merely being the time to dust off forks and spades. For in the Bible, a garden is the setting for Easter itself. In John's Gospel (John 20:1-18) Mary Magdalene meets the risen Jesus in a garden. Indeed, Jesus's appearance to Mary is so unexpected that at first she can't believe it's really him. So she mistakes the man she meets, "supposing him to be the gardener" (John 20:15).

In John's account, all the new life contained in the first Easter chimes with a much earlier story set in a garden too. This is of the new life of another man and woman, the creation story of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden and contained in the book of Genesis (Genesis 2:4 – 3:24). In that story, Adam is the gardener (Genesis 2:15), only for things to go wrong. In John, Jesus is portrayed as the new Adam – come to bring new life that has no end.

What would happen if we were to think of our churches as gardens, primed to welcome the spring that is the new life of Jesus this Easter? What would happen if we imagined ourselves called to be gardeners – like our father Adam and the new Adam, Jesus? What would we expect to grow? What might need pruning or weeding? What new plans for the coming season would we make and turn into action? What would be the harvest that we'd sow for, tend and then reap?

For I reckon we should see Easter as the starting point of all that God wants to do among us and with us. Jesus's Resurrection opens us to being part of God's new creation. Easter offers us a fresh start for life, relationships and the life of our churches: new life for all the world.

Happy gardening and a very Happy Easter to you all!

+Michael

This month's charity: Jamie's Farm

The loose collection on the second and fourth Sundays of the next two months – 10 and 24 March, plus 14 and 28 April – will go to Jamie's Farm, a charity chosen by our young people. (Donations in collection envelopes will continue to go to Christ Church.)

This year, the children's choice for Charity of the Month is Jamie's Farm. This charity offers opportunities for young people to take part in a unique residential programme, built around working on the farm. The young people who benefit are from all sorts of backgrounds, with differing needs, including social and emotional-related, and often having difficulties in school. The programme is designed specifically to improve well-being, boost engagement, improve behaviour and develop essential life-skills such as communication and self-awareness. There are six farms all over the country, and one is located just outside Bath, in Box. You can find out more about the charity at <https://jamiesfarm.org.uk>.

Members of our Junior Church will be fundraising for Jamie's Farm during March and April. Keep a lookout in the notices for their fundraising escapades!

OF ENGLAND

About Christ Church

We're a liberal, inclusive and open church, seeking God through beauty in our worship, honesty in our faith and doubt, and support in our community

Christ Church has an unusual history, out of which has developed a distinctive ministry. It was founded at the end of the 18th century by a group of socially concerned clergy and lay people for those excluded from worship through the system of pew rents. It was probably the first church in England since the Reformation to provide seating for all free of charge. Early supporters included John Moore, Archbishop of Canterbury, and William Wilberforce, the great evangelical and campaigner against slavery. We must recognise, however, that much of Bath's wealth at the time derived, directly or indirectly, from the trafficking and exploitation of enslaved human beings, so that inevitably some of the funds donated ultimately derived from this source.

Christ Church is not a parish church and does not have a full-time vicar. This has led to the development of a shared ministry where clergy and laity both make important contributions to worship and church life.

Christ Church is part of the Anglican diocese of Bath and Wells, although it still sits outside the Church of England parish system. We see ourselves as a traditional and liberal Anglican church. Worship is led by our clergy, and music is provided by our robed choir and organist. New singers of all ages are always very welcome.

As well as worship on Sundays and Thursdays, there are many other activities going on in our community, including our weekly community café every Friday. Our ecumenical Pilgrim Group provides a space for exploration and discussion of faith in an open and non-judgemental setting. Visit the website to check service times and events.
